Please note:

In the interest of maintaining this great opportunity and not overwhelming the generosity of the Storino Family, there are some guidelines for attendance. All families attending are to register as individual families by email, gscopsevents@gmail.com (not phone calls, text messages or Facebook messaging) by Friday, July 1, 2016. Please do not just show up and say you told someone.

Survivors are the guests of the Storino Family. If survivors invite someone else, then they are the Survivors guest and they may make their own arrangements for them to enter the waterpark. If the situation arises where a babysitter, caretaker or special friend must come, please contact Mike Parmenter via email at gscopsevents@gmail.com (not phone calls, text messages or Facebook messaging).
